

Athens Arts4All May 4 and 5, 2019 H.Rowe Middle School Athens, PA - Rain or Shine

What a great start! Athens Arts4All 2018 showcased a wide range of artisans, students, food vendors and performers. In total, over 6,000 people joined in the fun while celebrating the arts. We were also able to donate $4,500 to the art and music programs in Athens Area School District. This year we are aiming even higher! With a new layout, more artisans, free admission and expanding support, we want to show that the Arts are for All!

Athens Arts4All will be held at Rowe Middle School in Athens, PA, on Saturday, May 4, from 10-5pm and Sunday, May 5, from 10-4pm in 2019. The mission of this event is to allow the community to celebrate the arts through exposure, experience and expression. As a non-profit volunteer organization, Arts4All plans to direct as much money and support as possible to the arts in our local schools and communities.

Athens Arts4All will be a lively two-day juried arts festival held at Rowe Middle School. Professional artisans, student vendors, musical performances and delicious food offerings will be the highlights of the show. Students will take the spotlight in artwork displays and ceramics demonstrations. Learners of all ages will be able to take part in on-site art classes. Community groups and school organizations will be on hand to share information. With free admission and free parking, there will be arts for all!

In order to create a high quality event while providing support to the local arts, we need the financial support of generous sponsors. We can't do it without you!

Enclosed is a sponsor information sheet as well as a donation form. Please consider completing the form and returning it with a check by March 16, 2019.

Thank you for your support and we hope to see you in May at Athens Arts4All!

Sincerely,

Kurt Priester
President, Arts4All
